ISCHUA VALLEY FALLING LEAVES REGATTA SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8 HINSDALE AMERICAN LEGION

End your "Summer of 2018" by participating in the 12th annual Ischua Valley Falling Leaves Regatta, an amateur dice run regatta. Any form of motor-less craft can be entered for a fun trip down the beautiful Ischua Creek. Proceeds benefit the Hinsdale American Legion, Hinsdale Volunteer Fire Department, and the Ischua Vol. Fire Department. Camping is offered all weekend! Camping and boating registration begins at 3pm on Friday; boats and entrants will be transported and in the water by 11am on Saturday. Participants will put-in at the Ischua Creek from Mill Street in Ischua and float to the finish behind the Hinsdale American Legion (approx. 7.8 miles.)

The Ischua Creek is classified as one of the few Class A trout streams by the New York State Dept. of Environmental Conservation. The stream is home to native trout, ospreys, herons, and the American Bald Eagle. You are equally likely to see deer, bear, otter, beaver and other aquatic animals during your venture. Participants can opt for a shorter route (5.1 miles), starting at Farwell Road with the same end location.

Go paperless and register online at www.fallregatta.com or call 716-557-8716 for more information.

OUTDOOR ADVENTURE SERIES AT ALLEGANY STATE PARK NIGHT HIKE: WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 12

Allegany State Park is offering informative, hands-on, FREE clinics as part of their Outdoor Adventure Series. Join them every month as various outdoor enthusiasts share their knowledge and passion of their favorite activity. With miles of trails, serene lakes, and natural beauty everywhere, it is hard not to find an activity to enjoy. The Outdoor Adventure Series introduces more fun things to do in Allegany - Western New York's Playground.

The October activity will be a Night Hike from 6-7:30pm. Learn about the animals of the night and who makes what sound. Try to identify trees by their shape and texture of their bark. Look to the stars and moon, find out how they can help you navigate at night. Bring a head lamp (although we will try not to use it). Meet at Hemlock Hollow.

This program will last approximately 1.5 hours. Registration is not required. For more information please contact the Environmental Education/ Recreation Department at 716-354-9101 ext. 236.

ROUTE 16 CORRIDOR GARAGE SALES AND BBQ STOPS SATURDAY AND SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 15 & 16

Looking for that special bargain? Antiques, lawn, garden, household, produce and many more low cost items will be available at hundreds of garage sales throughout the day along the Route 16 Corridor. Hungry? Enjoy one of the roadside barbecues or restaurants along the way. Participating communities include Knapps Creek, Town of Olean, City of Olean, Hinsdale, Maplehurst, Ischua, Franklinville, Machias, Delevan, and Yorkshire ... that's 43 miles of garage sales at private residences and at designated community selling points! BBQ's will be hosted by some of the local Fire Departments and other community stops along Route 16. Plan to spend a full day in the Enchanted Mountains, and surely you'll find some great gently used treasures! Get more information or request a map by calling 716-904-2233.

The 1st ever "Fall for Franklinville Festival" will be held Saturday, September 15 in conjunction with the Rt. 16 yard sales. There will be a classic/exotic car show in Park Square starting at 10am.
